SUBJECT: CE MARKING - DIRECTIVE 2011/65/EU (also known as RoHS) and 2015/863/UE

Dear Customer,

With reference to the Directive 2011/65/EU and to its amendment directive 2015/863/EU on the restriction of the use of certain hazardous substances in electrical and electronic equipment (RoHS), recast of the previous Directive 2002/95/EC, it is pointed out that:

- Cables produced by I.C.E.L. S.C.p.a. with a nominal rated voltage higher than 250 V do not fall in the scope of the RoHS Directive, so cannot be marked CE under this Directive.
- Cables produced by I.C.E.L. S.C.p.a. with a nominal rated voltage lower or equal to 250 V are included in the application field of the Directive 2011/65/EU starting from 22 July 2019, within category 11.

I.C.E.L. S.C.p.a., headquartered in Lugo (RA) - Italy, declares that:

- The cables produced by I.C.E.L. S.C.p.a., continue to meet the requirements of all applicable directives, including, where appropriate, RoHS Directive.
- Our products that were already included in the previous directive or falling under RoHS Directive for the first time, as a result of the inclusion of the new category 11, or any changes to the exempted applications, comply with RoHS requirements according to the dates indicated in the Directive.
- The supplied components will guarantee the continued RoHS compliance of the final product in which will have to be incorporated, according to the principle of induced compliance.

According to the previous statement I.C.E.L. S.C.p.a., maintains active the necessary actions enabling the company to ensure the continuity of the supply chain. Specifically:

- updating the necessary information with reference to the evolution of the RoHS Directive;
- searching for alternative suppliers with the aim of ensuring the continuity of supply;
- promoting the research and development of alternative processes or substances in order to guarantee our customers the continuity, the quality and the performances of the supplied products;
